

Archon Victor Woolridge Appointed Board Chairman of the University of Massachusetts Building Authority

December 7, 2016

On December 6, 2016, Governor Charlie Baker of Massachusetts announced the appointment of Archon Victor Woolridge as Chairman of the Board of the University of Massachusetts Building Authority (UMBA). Archon Woolridge of Beta Sigma Boule, Springfield, Massachusetts, is a commercial real estate professional and Vice President of Debt Placement & Syndications at Barings Real Estate Advisers LLC. He is a longtime appointee of the University of Massachusetts (UMass) Board of Trustees, where he most recently served as Chairman of the 22-member board. In his new role as Chairman of UMBA, Archon Woolridge oversees the planning, financing and construction of the multibillion-dollar capital activities of the UMass system's infrastructure, which covers 26-million square feet across five campuses.

Archon Woolridge and his Archousa Karen are proud parents of four children and four grandchildren.
